

Matt Darey & Marcella Woods, Voice Of An Angel won't u guide my restless soul? through the fire and the storm lead me to a place that I can call my own here I'd lost my innocence but what I feel is heaven sent something to believe that I can call my own this place I found

it relieves my soul
the voice of an angel that carry me home
the sun will rise
to guide me there
the voice of an angel to carry me home the voice of an angel... (x2) the voice of an angel... so carry me home leave your demons in the past there's a lot of things I want to last cherish every moment that you haven't learn ?? away from all that's broken listen when your heart is spoken you have faith in me, and with me, I'll show you how this place I found
the voice of an angel that carry me home
the voice of an angel to carry me home
