

Matt Nathanson, Everything You Say Sounds Like

I've got bravery that shorts out on me
I see superstars in common thieves
And I see all you give up
And I try to be as much
Everything you say it sounds like gospel
Everything you say it sounds like gospel to me
I feel cheated
Tangled up repeatedly
Owed a piece of everything
And
Still you come around
With scissors to cut me down
Everything you say it sounds like gospel
Everything you say it sounds like gospel to me
It's all I can do to win for you
