

Matt Nathanson, Prove To Me

i've always liked the fireworks tripping over you
i could lie awake for hours wrapped in every brilliant bloom i'll be here
always dear
i was never any good alone
you're brilliant when you glow prove to me
i'm tired of words
they don't ever mean a thing you're sprawled across the sky now i'm still on the ground believing like a liar
in every jealous sound
yeah i'll be here
always near
but never on top of it.
i plotted lines to follow but you're never coming down
i'm tired of words now
i'll surrender
just show me in
i'll surrender
i'll be waiting
wasted dear
i've always liked your fireworks
