Matt Nathanson, To the Beat of Our Noisy Hearts

She dont lie in bed at night

Staring at the ceiling

She dont wait to begin

She bets on long shots

She wants what theyve got

She skates where the ice thins

On and on, we keep going

Crowded like subway cars

On and on, to the beat of our noisy hearts

Our hearts

She was her mothers secret

She was daddys girl

She brought weekend boys home in her curls

She said, My love is a fever.

Come on, touch my skin.

They all think Im easy,

Im easy, cause I let them win.

On and on, we keep going

Crowded like subway cars

On and on, to the beat of our noisy hearts

On and on, we keep going

Crowded like subway cars

On and on, to the beat of our noisy hearts

To the beat of our noisy hearts

She said, Pick up the phone

Cause I need to feel more alone

And your voice drives me crazy.

On and on, we keep going

Crowded like subway cars

On and on, to the beat of our noisy hearts

On and on, we keep going

Crowded like subway cars

On and on, to the beat of our noisy hearts, hearts, hearts

On and on, we keep going

Crowded like subway cars

On and on, to the beat of our noisy hearts
