

Matt Pond PA, The Crush

Call off the crush
It started with my arm
Across your chest
It was enough
There is so much
That never goes away
There is a crush
From how our arms can weigh

Deep beneath the sheets
I see another arm that knows the way you breathe
I am not blind and I can see
In the snow you'll never be with me
I said no it's not right
I know it's not alright with me

So I should rush
Into another arm
Across my chest
There is enough
There is so much
That never goes away
There is a crush
From how our arms can weigh

Deep beneath the sheets
I see another arm that knows the way you breathe
I am not blind and I can see
In the snow you'll never be with me
I said no it's not right
I know it's not alright with me

No Its not right, no its not alright
No, its not right, no its not alright, alright with me
Call off the crush
That goes down to our legs
It waits for dark, it waits for dusk
Our eyes will close
Upon another day
There is so much, there is enough
