

Matt Redman, Can I Ascend

Can I ascend the hill of the Lord?
Can I stand in that holy place?
There to approach the glory of my God,
Come towards to seek your face.

Purify my heart
Purify my hands
For I know it is, on holy ground I'll stand.

I'm coming up the mountain Lord
I'm seeking you and you alone.
I know that I will be transformed
My heart unveiled before you.
I'm longing for your presence Lord
Envelop me within the clouds.
I'm coming up the mountain Lord
My heart unveiled before you
I will come.
Can I ascend the hill of the Lord?
Can I stand in that holy place?
There to approach the glory of my God,
Come towards to seek your face.

Purify my heart
Purify my hands
For I know it is, on holy ground I'll stand.

I'm coming up the mountain Lord
I'm seeking you and you alone.
I know that I will be transformed
My heart unveiled before you.
I'm longing for your presence Lord
Envelop me within the clouds.
I'm coming up the mountain Lord
My heart unveiled before you
I will come.

I'm coming to worship
I'm coming to bow down
I'm coming to be with you.
(repeat x 4)

I'm coming up the mountain Lord
I'm seeking you and you alone.
I know that I will be transformed
My heart unveiled before you.
I'm longing for your presence Lord
Envelop me within the clouds.
I'm coming up the mountain Lord
My heart unveiled before you
I will come.

I'm coming to worship
I'm coming to bow down
I'm coming to be with you.....
