

Matt Wertz, All Because Of You

I'm turning clouds into mountains like water into sweet wine I'm a-closing the mouths of lions just around supertime

And I'm turning all my roads into golden highways and I'm living off morning dew And it keeps getting easier these days and it's all because of you

(Chorus)

It's all because of you
it's all because of you, yeah you
it's all because of you
it's all because...of you

'Cause you treat me like a knight in the living giving me this fertile land I change my selfishness into giving I made my two left feet to dance...and

(Chorus)

It's all because of you
it's all because of you, yeah you
it's all because of you
it's all because of you, yeah you, yeah you, you

I've made mistakes, Lord, you know I've fallen so short But you continue to bless me, my Earth and Lord

(Solo)

'Cause I'm turning clouds into mountains,
like water into sweet wine...

(Chorus)2x
