

Matt Wertz, Comfort

I am consumed with thoughts of you and my entire being won't rest till these feelings do So why do I do this all of the time jump in head first, forgetting the devine

And you comfort me
and you help me to see Feeling drained, I look to you for strength and you rest me and you're near

And I seem to break down at the thought of that night Why is my need for the girl stronger then my love for God Would you tell me here, right now

'Cause you comfort me
and you help me to see
Feeling drained, I look to you for strength and you rest, out your name (Unwrap me, help me I'm resting while you're near)

Why do I worry about these things So small, yet they seem so big It's just that I'm not the best with the ladies and I want someone to hold

And you comfort me
and you helped me to see Feeling drained, I look to you for strength and you rest me and you're near...me (you rest me)

Down by the riverside, down by the riverside down by the riverside You take me down, take me down take me down to the riverside will you, take me down take me down, take me down to the riverside will you, take me down, take me down take me down to the riverside will you wash me clean away you wash me clean away with your blood-stained hands, you washed me
with your blood-stained hands, wash me...away
