

Matt Wertz, I'm Sorry Mary

(There are two versions of this song...a lot of the words are the same, but a lot are different too, so I'm enclosing both versions. It's not a long song....a lot of repetition.)

Version 1:

I wish I could say what words won't amount to,
but now I can't speak your name
Send it in a letter,
Wait for your reply
Because you were on my mind

(Chorus)

I'm sorry, Mary, but it's over (You took the best out of me!)
I'm sorry, Mary, but it's over (You took the best out of me!)
I'm sorry, Mary, but it's over (You took the best out of me!)
and I'm sorry, Mary

First star I see tonight hangs on my wall
Picture of you that's still there
Wouldn't change anything,
Would you change me? If I could,
Would you want me to be here?

(Chorus)

Illusions all but fade
Sunlight beams in your hair
Trying me

(Chorus)

Version 2:

I wish I could say what words won't amount to me
but I can't speak your name
Something that I fear inside,
and now I'm on my..
Wish you were on my mind

(Chorus)

I'm sorry, Mary, but it's over (You took the best out of me!)
I'm sorry, Mary, but it's over (You took the best out of me!)
I'm sorry, Mary, but it's over (You took the best out of me!)
and I'm sorry, Mary

First star I see tonight hangs on my wall
a picture of you that's still there
Would it change anything?
Would you change me? If I could,
Would you want me to be mean?

(Chorus)

Illusions all but fade
in the sun, like we did you're here, fly with..(me!!)

(Chorus)
