

Matt Wertz, I Will Let You Down

I will let you down when you need me
I will let you down when you don't
I will let you down when your friendless
I will let you down when you know

Believe me its the hardest thing
To be this skin and these bones
But girl I'll try a trillion times
Cause I love you

I will let you down in the summer
I will let you down in the spring
I will let you down when the rain molds
I will let you down when sunlight sings

But believe me its the hardest thing
To be this skin and these bones
But girl I'll try a trillion times
Cause I love you
I love you

I will let you down with my actions
I will let you down with my tone
I will let you down with my story
I will let you down with my song

But believe me its the hardest thing
To be this skin and these bones
But girl I'll try a trillion times
Cause I love you

Will you stand
By the man
Who was aganist his skin and his bones
But girl I'll try
If it takes a trillion times
Cause I love you
