

Matt Wertz, Red Meets Blue

(SPONSOR)

Your distracting me with that beauty leaving me wanting more reminding me of my duty to lock these eyes to yours

(Chorus)

And I never known a love so true and I wanna see all of you when green meets red
and red meets blue
I wanna see all of you all of you, all of you

The sunlight dances with the distance in a squinty eyed shores and im chasing down a rising heart, yeah with hopes being danced with to

And i never known a love so true and i wanna see all of you, yeah
when green meets red
and red meets blue
I wanna see all of you, all of you, all

Daylight seems all that morning in a dream and im lost, im lost inside you

And i never known a love you true
and I wanna see all of you When green meets red
and I wanna see all of you, all of you, all

All of...
