Matt Wertz, The Day Forever

I can't believe that you're gone, without a trace I can't believe you've got no tears upon your face While mine is soaking wet, making up for your lack I guess

That's how it is in love, or out of love as I sit now Without you next to me, wishing things that just can't be

It's all that I can do
To sit back and watch it all blow through

Should've been so good Could've been so right That was before the day forever died Wishing on what-ifs Taking my chances That was before the day forever died

There's nothing left to be said, its all been spoken In spite of words you could not find for me I guess you came out ahead, and now I'm broken Into a man ashamed to show his face

Walking away seems so easy for you So why's it gotta be so hard for me To see that it's over But for so long, love was just you and me
