

Matt Wertz, This Moment

It's not that others aren't but this one I know for sure
Your touch, too real, too warm
Your words, too loud to ignore

(Chorus)

This moment is you (I'm on my knees again)
This moment is you (completely helpless)
This moment is you (can you restore me?)
This moment is you (bring peace and healing)

Too often I overlooked
these moments with you by my side
When absence leads to loss
it's me who's left alive

(Chorus)2x

This moment is you
This moment is...you...you (bring peace and healing)
