

Matthew Sweet, Ocean In-Between

The Ocean In-Between written by Matthew Sweet

Kept my love in the back of my mind
'Til it finally came time I should use it
I kept my love I was sure I would find
I would need it in time to win you with

And I waited 'til I knew every little thing about you
Let my heart adore the warmth radiating all around you
'Cause the ocean in-between isn't real

From above I have not heard a sound
And you're feeling no pull from below you

One thing leads to another I've found
And I still know you now like I once sang

So I waited 'til I knew every little thing about you
Let my heart adore the warmth radiating all around you
'Cause the ocean in-between isn't real

Solo

And I waited 'til I knew every little thing about you
Let my heart adore the warmth radiating all around you
And I waited 'til I knew every little thing about you
'Cause the ocean in-between isn't real
