

Maureen McGovern, Bedtime Story

Love can be so hard to find
Dreams are never free
Time runs out forever
Like sand into the sea
We're so lucky, you and I
And night's the place to be

So, tell me a bedtime story
And touch away our cares
Make a world for us
And take me there
Just tell me a bedtime story
Of lovers and of friends
Make a world for both of us
That never ends

Erase the thoughts that crowd my mind
Chase my fears away
Promise that tomorrow
Will be better than today
Oh, we're so lucky, you and I
Don't ever go away

Just tell me a bedtime story
And touch away our cares
Make a world for us
And take me there
Just tell me a bedtime story
Of lovers and of friends
Make a world for both of us
That never ends

Love, work those miracles
That only love can do
Make the cold world warm again
Just hold me, hold me

Tell me a bedtime story
And touch away our cares
Make a world for us
And take me there
Just tell me a bedtime story
Of lovers and of friends
Make a world for both of us
That never ends
That never ends
