

Maureen McGovern, I Like You, You're Nice

I like you, you're nice
Seems like I've known you for years
But we met just an hour ago
I'd never know we're such old friends
And I like you a lot
So, don't go

You're nice, you're very much me
How very nice we could be
But we wouldn't have all that we have
Let's never know and just be friends
'Cause I like you a lot
So, don't go

Take me home
And stay for a while with me
If you're good,
I'll make you
A marvelous,
Wonderous,
And quite notorious
Cup of Costa Rican coffee

'Cause I like you,
Yes, I like you,
You're nice
