

Max Jury, All I Want

Oh, Yoko was playing on the jukebox when i saw your face in the velvet glow of ghost ships sinking in the falling snow and i know you're an actress with a past so blue and hazy cuz i've seen that place and its tragic charms and how it makes the music sounds so sweet

all i want baby is you

i drove through the country just to see you in the sunrise cuz i broke my hand in a barroom fight about you but i know that they were right
