

Max Mutzke, Smile

In my world, I'm walking on a tightrope
Yes I feel like living here without scope
Then you crash into my life, like a bullet
From the sky And I knew I have seen
So many different faces Yes I knew from
Many different places Then you sprang out
Of the crowd And I remember you again

Smile, smile, smile, just for me
Smile, smile, smile, will you ever see
Then when you came into my life,
I just missed a beat - Smile, smile, smile,
Gonna set me free, gonna set me free

We ware gone away from the mainstream
And we need no guarantee to be here
We're just different from the rest
We have to face the test
Then you sprang out of the crowd
I remember you again

Smile, smile, smile, will you ever see
Then when you came into my life,
I just missed a beat - Smile, smile, smile,
Gonna set me free, gonna set me free

I just need an application
For another good sensation
Will it last forever now?

Smile, smile, smile
Gonna set me free
