

Max, Puppeteer

You're dripping fire tonight.
You're like miracle, you got me feeling so,
Ah ah ah hey hey hey hey
Ah ah ah ah, hey hey hey hey
Look like the rest of my life.
You're like a centerfold
I wanna make you go
Ah ah ah
Hey hey hey hey
Ah ah ah hey

Girl you're all the rage, so can we turn the page
tell me little something little more than just your name
I don't bite, but I heard you might
so let me feed your appetite.
Where do we go from here,
Whisper what you want in my ear,
My little puppeteer.

We don't need clothes to dance.
So we can take it slow.
Or put on a show.
Give them give them want me
Ah ah ah hey hey hey hey.

Girl you're all the rage, so can we turn the page
tell me little something little more than just your name
I don't bite, but I heard you might
so let me feed your appetite.
Where do we go from here,
Whisper what you want in my ear,
My little puppeteer.

so wont you pull your body close to mine.
Tastes like heaven when our lips collide.
And I'm hooked and I'm hooked and I'm hooked I'm strung out on ya baby.
I don't bite but heard you might so let me feed your appetite.
