

Maxeen, Strangers

here come the critics oh
to tear your heart wide open here come the lawyers
billions for phone conversation
you got some talent kid you're really going places i've heard it many times from all the empty faces
don't talk to strangers
my mona lisa
early sunday morning i find you so incredibly boring
you got some talent kid
i've heard it so many times from all you pretty faces
and you all look so strange to me
