

Maya Wasserman, strangers again

verse 1

now we are strangers again, but this time with memories maybe we'll meet again one day in my dreams we'll laugh and play a game i know it makes me sad as well but for now forgive me i must tell my mum i'm staying far away from you please don't get in my way yeah it's sad we've been through much i'm sorry we can't stay in touch i prechorus

thought i'd love you till the day earth shatters into pieces thought i'd die for you although you gave me zero reasons to chorus

i never knew you like i thought i did you made me feel like i was still a kid when you kissed me in the rain took me on a random train babe i'm feeling it again

verse 1

if i saw you on the street i'd say that you look pretty sweet but if i looked you in the eyes i'd see the devil in disguise i really wish we hadn't met you taught me loads but i don't get how you think we should still be friends i'm sorry i need us to end now

you made me feel like i was still a kid

bridge

it's replays in my head like a broken CD i never thought i could be so needy still feel your breath on my neck please stop me i'm reminiscing again i said stop

it's replays in my head like a broken CD i give and you take youre so fucking greedy you knew how i felt and you still tore me apart

then you put me in pain made me feel like i'm insane so you need to stay away and i'm gonna be okay
