

Mayhem, Cursed In Eternity

My name was written with fire in the place you only can see when your time has come When you walk down in the land of shadows for eternity The demon flies in the blackened starless skies and crawls in the bottomless depths of hell The name which will be a thousand times cursed in eternity Condemned to wander, until it comes to the cruelest snake that crawls
The demon flies in the blackened starless skies, and crawls in the bottomless depths of hell
