

Mazzy Star, It Speaks The Distance

Sometimes my life
Is just a torch
They go away
And come back to me
It's just no way
It can be found
It's a view
Come on take it
The touch of your hand
It speaks the distance
It speaks the distance
In your heart
Behind my life
There's a silent storm
It brings a vision
Into your mind
It's in between
All the dark of hearts
My heart beats and say
Come on, there's question of why
There's no question of why
Beat your door
To knock it through
You took his watch
His solitude
In my eyes
It may be
Behind my eyes
There's different kinds
They go away
And come back to me
