

Mazzy Star, Take Everything

I can't believe your thinking
Save everyone, inside you
Take everything
Fake everything
Save everything
About me

All of you, all right
Just because, I want to know
Do you still come last night clear eyes pale
You never got there even though you say you will
Sorry now that you've fallen from my eyes
That's the truth

Why are you telling me about everything
Why tell me about anything
You're just waiting for her to come apart
You're just waiting for her

Take everything
Fake everything
Save everything
