

Mc Chris, The Masturbation Song

We were hoodlums in the year of '88
Me and my buddy Brian and way under age
I was a shifty little mess just watch me drift between the cliques
No one had me like my family it was kinda the pits
So I take it out on others that were one beneath my status Making fun of making c??? made me think I was a badass wasn't even a nerd, I'd sit with Bri and his boys
I felt kinda included
I was so overjoyed
No one liked me and I know junior high was a mess
So I played king's quest where you go and you fence Playground was a place where I should have got punched but I never learned my lesson cause no one noticed me much.
Sep Brian he was funny and we shared every class Can't explain it I just knew that it wouldn't last had me over Friday night to watch porn at his dad's that's when he pulled me out for jerkin' off in my sleepin' bag.

Brian told his friends and the word to them spread my freshmen year at Brainerd and I was better off dead Everybody knew even that nerd named Kramer he'd made fun of me in the locker room I couldn't be lamer do you jerk off till your beat off? yo, that's all I ever heard If you can't control your penis maybe you should go to church so let's persecute the perv, make him think he acts alone like they're not all running home to grab onto their bone but they convinced me i was stupid, so i'd do it with guilt that's how i was raised, and what the catholic preist felt my behavior was a bum, i wish i knew it was a blessin couldn't keep myself from messin, never considered confessing just kept it on the low, while the lunchroom laughed but at my expense, i had no friends, i felt trapped but i guess i had it coming after how i behaved let that be a lesson, one i'll take to my grave
