

MC Lyte, Absolutely Positively....Practical Jokes

I play practical jokes, just to get a laugh (ha hah)
I put roaches in my neighbor's bubblebath
But anyway one day she called upon me
She said, &quot;Lyte - it's an emergency!&quot;
My next door neighbor had an errand to run
I said, &quot;Why Ms. Davis - ask your son&quot;
She said, &quot;Ricky's at his grandmother's&quot;
I said, &quot;Well what about Tommy, the younger brother?&quot;
She said, &quot;See, umm, he's at the pharmacy&quot;
I said, &quot;He'll be back soon how much longer could it be?&quot;
She said, &quot;C'mon please, it's just a trip uptown
If you leave right now you'll be back before sundown
Hurry up, there's not a moment to spare
It absolutely positively has to get there&quot;
Umm, I contemplated then I played a good Samaritan
I started the car, then she threw the package in
