MC Lyte, Cold Rock A Party (Milk Remix)

Go Brooklyn, go brooklyn, go brooklyn
(repeat)
Cold rock a party and the B-girls stand
I rock on the floor make the fellas wanna dance
I be the shhhh
And it's all good
And if you understood, would you
Stop scheming and trying to look hard
I get my bodyguard
You get that booty scarred
I'm a veteran
Which means that I've been
In the game too long
Since the days of Paper Thin
Way back when I've been putting it down
Ask your homey who's the baddest bitch on this side of town
I float like a butterfly
Sting like a bee
Spectacular on the M I C
I go for broke, never giving it less than the best
Lots of years in the game at your request
You like the rhyme
Bite if you dare
I get the paper so I don't care
Fking you up everytime that I drop
But fk a bullet baby, I done took your spot
I guide the beat and I ride it well
And if you take a look
It ain't hard to tell that I
Repeat 1
Back off me and let my skin breathe
Lyte is everlasting it's hard to believe
I shall prevail cause I'm next to none
Cause I'm claiming no sets
Don't plan to get done
Just Brooklyn
Is where I'm from
But I'm resting in Studio City for the fun
If you don't understand then say you don't (nah)
And don't wait for me to explain cause I won't
You see it's in my nature to be the best (say what?)
West to East, see East to West
I got the beat and ride it well and if you take a look it ain't hard to tell
That I
Repeat 1
Get out my shit, Please let me be
I don't see why you KGB
Why you gotta be all up on me like that
Trying to get over like a fat rat
But I understand I'm a woman in the land of hip-hop
And the shit don't stop
It goes on, and then on, and on, and on
You see the shit don't stop until the break of dawn
And now who makes it liver than a hip-hop, scuba diver
Chillin with a pina colada, could dada hook me up with Tommy
Now I got alot of gear from everywhere
That I'd like to share (yeah right)
But I'd rather do Kani, don't ask why
5001, my son gets shit done now
I ride the beat and I ride it well
And if you take a look it ain't hard to tell that I
Repeat 1
