

MC Lyte, K-Rock's The Man

[K-Rock]

Is it a crime - because it's my time to bust a rhyme
A dope line to make the crowd behind me climb and then twine to a tune that Milk produced to make the party people get loose on the dancefloor, so don't try to hide Cause I designed the rhyme that make your back-bone slide to the music, cause it's uplifting Some may try, but they can't get with this But it's nothing for y'all to compete with It's just some smooth shit that's legit to make you get up when you're at a party and move.. your.. sexy.. body Up, down, side to side, around Come one, come all, come see what we found A way for y'all to work out y'all frustrations and groove with the band.. K-Rock's the Man

Now hurry hurry, step right up to my sideshow, and watch how my rhymes flow I let my galant talent illuminate So give three cheers for, K-Rock the Great Don't debate, the votes are castin This is one race that I could never come last in Boy you know that the K don't play
You can't step to me, don't sleep on a DJ K-Rock, because blockheads I knock and rock the sock into a state of shock That's how it's supposed to be and that goes for those who step close to me So when you see me, show respect Cause I met get upset and cold strip and snap the necks of all of those who don't understand that K-Rock.. K-Rock's the Man
