

McAuley Schenker Group, This Night Is Gonna La

Gina's got a six-string heartbeat
I could see the diamonds in her eyes
She would surrender on the back seat
All the way to paradise

One life, one crazy little moment
Nothin' else can take away the pain
Get ready for a night to remember
Love like this will never come again

Maybe she's cryin' alone in the night
No one will ever see the tears
As she walks into the light

Now she's gonna be someone.
It's her heart on the line for you

This night is gonna last forever
Promises were said and done
Can you really believe it's true

Gina's got a six-string heartbeat
No one else could ever be the same
She's feeling part of the music
Her one little piece of fame

One night, one crazy little moment
Taking everything that she can get
A souvenir of a lifetime
Somethin' that she can't forget

Sometimes when she's cryin' alone in the dark
She feels somethin' inside
A little kick. a little spark
