

McDonald And Giles, Flight Of The Ibis

Look into your eyes
Your eyes look away
Want to reach you now
But there's nothing I can say
I'm trying hard to see you
Words can't say what I want to

Love, love is one
Love we've begun
Love, let it come

You are but a child
Of the stars and the sky
We are just the young
Of a wind flying high
Trees bending in a windstorm
Through struggle we are reborn

Love, love is one
Love we've begun
Love, let it come

Look into your eyes
Let your eyes look at me
We have been as one
And as one we can be
Sad moments soon are nothing
Love is all, all is loving
