McFly, Get Over You

She was looking kinda sad and lonely, And I was thinking to myself if only, She'd give me a smile but, Its not gonna happen that way..

So i took it upon myself to ask her, Would you like company and maybe after, We could talk a while but, I just dont know what to say..

Coz you've got everything that I want, And I just cant explain so, Help me babe, I gotta get over you!

Now and then she looks in my direction, Im hoping for a sign of her affection, But shes in denile and, Shes got some worries today..

But I think if she'll give me a chance, I'll pleasantly surprize but, Help me babe I gotta get over you..

She has everything that she wants and, I just cant explain so, Help me babe I gotta get over, Help me babe I gotta get over, Help me babe I gotta get over you..
