

McFly, Take A Look Around

I cannot be all that you need i won't take it lightly running around like a whore you won't find me crying what else could you possibly need? you're never satisfied i can't mind anymore of this i feel like i'm going to die take a look around, yeah
and see what you have done so for a moment, what know that you have no one another problem in my life you're not here of course
by my side
i only wish that you could be just a little more you for me you're spreading minds and you are not even close to me
why do you follow me everywhere i go? can't you see that you should leave? yeah just please go home.
well i thought about it long and hard you should make a change and try real hard take a look around
so for a moment in time
