

McKinley, Movie

(McKinley)

Maybe you should drive up here and get me,
though I'm not sure I'll make much sense.
Everything I've built is leaning and they just raised the rent.
We could drive out to the desert.
You always make me feel like we're on film.
Sometimes my head just turns on me,
and you know that's a movie we were already in.
You know that's a movie we were already in.
Come on, drive up here and get me.
Let's go visiting our dead.
They're under the sand singing, and
we're not bigger than them yet.
Tonight the dead are so dramatic,
they still want to be our friends.
I need you to feed me my lines again.
You know it's a movie we were already in.
You know it's a movie we were already in.
