Me And My, Can't Forget The Past (Da Dap)

Since that day I left Everythings the same Im trying to forget All the hurt and pain

I know that you say Im the one with all the problems I know that you say Im not fair to you But what did you expect me to do

I cant , I cant forget the past Its just too much to ask for I cant believe you chose her over me My mind tells me to be strong Im trying to move on But all I see is what we used to be

Da Dab

Guess who said "hello" When I called your home I guess you didnt know That I was on the phone

I know that you say
We're supposed to be together
You know that I say
How can you stay
Leave her, just walk away
Before its too late
