

Me And My, Take My Heart

How can people say
That I have everything
How can people think
That my life is complete
Without you
I have nothing at all
I wish I could go on without you
But this road is so long

They can take my house
They can take my money baby
'Cause I dont have anything without you
They can make me sing
But its only sad songs baby
And no matter what I do
I have nothing
I am nothing
Without you

Everywhere I go

I see you tell me why
I lose control
And my feelings wont hide
Without you
Im so lonely, alone
Oh damn how I try to forget you
How I try to move on

Now I found someone
Who try to make me see
It was meant to be
But how can it be
When all I see is you
When I close my eyes
And go to sleep at night
He holds me tight
And I almost cry
'Cause all I feel is you
