

Me'Shell Ndegeocello, Earth

Written by Me'Shell and Cato

Let me be the rain

You thirst for

Let me be the sun

That you adore

And let my sweet, sweet ocean

Caress your shore

Let your heart

Search no more

You're my earth

Mmm

Paradise

I say you're my earth

My earth, my my

You're my earth

You're my earth

Sweet paradise

I say you're my earth

There's no place I'd rather be

Your beauty is surrounding me

For your tears black orchids bloom

Orchids bloom

My soul is fed by you

Fed by you

And water your birth, then death

It's back to dirt

Home, to you

You're my earth

In paradise

I say you're my earth

My earth, my my

You're my earth

You're my earth

Sweet, sweet paradise

I say you're my earth

Sweet, sweet

Mmm

Sweet, sweet paradise

I searched for you all over the world

Yes, search

Searched for you

All my life

I've searched,

Searched for you

Searched for you all my life

Life

Mmm

Yeah

Oh I

Mmm

I've searched,

Searched for you

Searched for you all my life

I've searched,

Searched for you

Searched for you all my life

Oh I

Listen to my heart speak

Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun

Morning sun, morning sun

I wait for you

I wait for you

Hmm

Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun

Morning sun, morning sun
My earth
Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
I wait for you, I wait for you
Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
I wait for you, I wait for you
Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
I wait for you, I wait for you.
