Meat Loaf, You're Right, I Was Wrong

Should've listened when you said I'd miss you Should've listened but I could not hear You said I'd want you back I said not a chance Now I can see I was so blind

You're right I was wrong
To ever leave you
I made a mistake
I'm sorry now
You're right I was wrong
To ever let you go
Now I know, now I know
You're right I was wrong

Couldn't see it when I had you with me Couldn't see that I had everything And now I see it clear And you're not here You said someday I'd change my mind

You're right I was wrong To ever leave you I made a mistake I'm sorry now You're right I was wrong To ever let you go Now I know, now I know You're right I was wrong

If I could have one more chance to hold you I would keep you here in my arms And never let you go Because now I know

You're right I was wrong
To ever leave you
I made a mistake
I'm sorry now
You're right I was wrong
To ever let you go
Now I know, baby now I know
You're right I was wrong
