

Media Lab, Stand Down

You lost it all, you loose

Stand Down

You want recognition for just breathing

I will push out all the bullshit that you feed me

You have lived your life for free

There's nothing left inside of me

To give to you, you lost it all

You'll fade away

You lost it all, you loose

Stand down

Respect is just a bullshit persona for you

You keep pretending that you're alive

Fake

You lost it all you loose

Stand Down
