

Megadeth, The Threat Is Real

Justifies obliteration,
No one cares anymore
The Messiah part mass murderer
No controlling who comes through the door
A culture made have covered us
Where leprosy touch their flesh
Fall back with meetings and rendezvous
The vultures have come hunt the nest
The clock runs out, the weakest link
A deadly strike, the threat is real!

Seen the burning images
A crest fallen nation sea
Violence conditioning, cause the nation of the enemy
You're terminal lack of vision
Blinded, I see no lights
A quiet lack of perspective
Their cancer now eats us alive
A fatal shot, a lust for blood
The final act, the threat is real!

Justifies obliteration, no one cares anymore
The Messiah part mass murderer
No controlling who comes through the door
A culture made have covered us
Where leprosy touch their flesh
Fall back with meetings and rendezvous
The vultures have come home to nest
The clock runs out, the weakest link
A deadly strike, the threat is real!
A fatal shot, a lust for blood
The final act, the threat is real!
