

Megan Rochell, Heartbreak

Chorus x2:

Ooh

I love you so

But why I love you

I'll never know

You found a reason for leaving

Soon as I gave my love to you

Verse 1:

Ooh

For the hundredth time we've reached this road

Keep tellin you this shit is getting old

This love thing is hitting me up

I'm sick of the complaining, blaming, telling me it's not enough

Waiting, patient, hoping you'll call me up

It's draining, I can't explain it

Baby I'm so caught up, this love is so tainted

Ooh

Fall in love and your heart is cold

When lovin you is so damn out of control

Thank everyone I haven't told

Even though you're leaving, cheating, causing me grief

I'm clinging to this love baby

Maybe, eventually, you will fall in love and stay with me

Chorus:

Ooh

I love you so

But why I love you

I'll never know

You found a reason for leaving

Soon as I gave my love to you

Verse 2:

Ooh

I'm broken hearted once again

I've been dismissed by my man

Why don't you just understand

I can't handle every night I'm lonely, wishing I could feel your touch

Wanting, waiting, missing you so much

Baby, stop playing, night after night I lay here crying and praying

Ooh

I really want you by my side

I wanna be the only lover in your life

But all I get is your "goodbye";

But even though your leaving, cheating, causing me grief

I'm clinging to this love baby

Maybe, eventually, you fall in love and stay with me

Chorus:

Ooh

I love you so

But why I love you

I'll never know

You found a reason for leaving

Soon as I gave my love to you

Bridge:

I already know you ain't the one for me

I keep holding on 'cause something's holding me

I'm a puppet on a set of strings
Underneath a spell, my sickness vexing me
I must look crazy to all of my friends
With my love that's coming to an end
I can't even start to comprehend
Why I keep on over again

At first I thought I could, I just really would Walk right out your life for the last time
You gon' miss me I'm gon' erase you from my mind
And close the door on you, from all you put me through
A mess is what I have become for you
No control, oh I'm falling for you
And now the verdict is in, it's clear
I need you to be in my life baby

Chorus x2:

Ooh
I love you so
But why I love you
I'll never know
You found a reason for leaving
Soon as I gave my love to you

Spoken Outro:

You did me wrong
But it's all good, 'cause I'm gon' be alright
Yeah, darkchild
