

Megan Rochell, It's On You

verse1:

Before your life with me was simple
But it's been crazy for a while
Now it if wasn't for your ego
We wouldn't be doin' this here right now
To busy frontin' for you people
That's exactly what I'm talkin' bout
Boy how am I suppose to be your equal
When you be steady talkin' down

hook:

What if, what if I started lyin'
And stopped apologizin'
What if I, I flipped the script
And acted just like you
Be no apologizin'
We never stopped the fightin'
Now it's your chance to walk up in my shoes

chorus:

I'm leavin' this one up to you
Tellin' you that this one, it's on you
Lately we've been just gettin' by
And lately I'm the only one tryin'
Cuz the last time it was me
And the first time it was me
Damn, I'm feelin' like it's always me
If you ain't gon' make this thing work
Then why don't you just say it's over
This ones on you

verse2:

Tell me who's the one who listens
Everytime you got somethin' to say
And tell me who's the one who's givin'
But never gettin' it the same
Back then I must've been just trippin'
Was thinkin' maybe you was gonna change
Another day & nothings different
Can't keep goin' on this way

hook:

What if, what if I started lyin'
And stopped apologizin'
I flipped the script
And acted just like you
Be no apologizin'
We never stopped the fightin'
Now it's your chance to walk up in my shoes

chorus:

I'm leavin' this one up to you
Tellin' you that this one, it's on you
Lately we've been just gettin' by
And lately I'm the only one tryin'
Cuz the last time it was me
And the first time it was me
Damn, I'm feelin' like it's always me
If you ain't gon' make this thing work
Then why don't you just say it's over
This ones on you

verse3:

2 years, since we got together boy
It's been 2 years, & things ain't got no better boy
I can't take it no more
Won't play it off like everything's okay
Now sorry ain't gon' cut it
It's not gon' be enough
Cuz we keep goin' through the same thing
Yeah, I love you but I,
I can't keep drivin' if it's only gonna go one way

chorus:

I'm leavin' this one up to you
Tellin' you that this one, it's on you
Lately we've been just gettin' by
And lately I'm the only one tryin'
Cuz the last time it was me
And the first time it was me
Damn, I'm feelin' like it's always me
If you ain't gon' make this thing work
Then why don't you just say it's over
This ones on you

bridge:

Cuz I gave it to you on my first one
It's on you
And I've put of with all the shit you've done
It's on you
And every argument you make it my fault
And every argument you never got caught
It's on you
Cuz I gave it to you on my first one
It's on you
And I've put of with all the shit you've done
It's on you
And every argument you make it my fault
Like and every argument you never got caught
It's on you
