

Meganoidi, For Those Who Lie Awake (Let's Go)

Tonight I have not got the charm to stay trying to defend my plan really sorry to be in a rush and misunderstood
The man smiling against the wall
As big as the lie he has got
Come on Mr. dont be shy
Come on tell me what you want
How much for a better life?
How much for a freer way?
Thank you gangster Santa we dont want your golden gala invite

Something is coming tonight
Little presents for those who lie awake
Pleasant nice surprise
Little presents for those who want to rise

Relax you wont notice it
Relax you are used to it
Keep on sleeping when we play
Keep on laughing when we cry
Let us blast the way we like
Dream on entertain your mind
Disconnecting people we dont want your negotiation

Something is coming tonight
Little presents for those who lie awake
Pleasant nice surprise
Little presents for those who want to rise

Lets go, none could be richer
Get ready for the plot against the plot
Walking out the master trap
Lets go none could be faster
Get ready for the plot against the plot
Walking out the master trap

Wash out its enough for us
Dead loss its enough for us
Disconnecting people we dont want your negotiation

Lets go
