

Meganoidi, Love Song

Yes it's really late and now I've got less than three days to write the words of this my brand new song the last emotion has gone so please don't keep on asking me to talk about you... now the stage is getting closer and I am here again no more thoughts on my mind and nothing special to say don't ask me to be untrue
to talk about you...
cause I don't feel insane enough to talk about my own disease cause I don't feel in love enough to talk about you...
