

Meghan - Magdalena Jaworska, The Devil of Rock

He said 'Come to me, to my rock'n'roll arms'
I said 'You can be the man who can do this alright'
He said 'Come to me, you will be my rockstar'
I said 'You can be the one who will rock that night'
So we came to my place laughing all the time,
We were staring at the stars and dancing on the grass,
I put my black dress on, and you put on your white shirt,
We're like a lady and a gentleman at the bottom of the hell.

Take me down,
Just take me down with you...

I asked him to stay, and he stayed for a night,
I was singing he was slamming on his favourite guitar,
He said 'There's a little whisky left at the bottom of my heart'
I said 'Pour it on me now, you won't regret that tonight'
He said 'You know, there was a girl who ripped my heart out'
I said 'Try to fall in love with another one'
He said 'I'm afraid to love anyone, somehow, but I want to be a devil in your sexy little heart'

Take me down,
Just take me down with you...

Will you be my rockstar?
