Meghan Trainor, Wave (ft. Mike Sabath)

i want what i can't have still holding onto hope drowning in my tears this love's a sinking boat this love's a sinking boat once my hands have reached the shore you pull me back in and I shouldn't beg for more but I don't want to end just take me like a wave take me like a wave take me like a wave pull me back and forth crash into my arms tell me I am yours take me like a wave
