

Meiko, You & Onions

I'm a hot dog
Sittin in the fog
Waitin for my day in the sun
And I'm all alone
Far away from home
Just me, my mustard, and my bun
And though I miss you
But time is on my side
And though I need you
But you and onions make me cry
And I'm all beef
But I have a heart
And it's splitting now that you've gone away
And I wish everything was kosher as me
But I'm not healthy for you anyway
And though I miss you
But time is on my side
And though I need you
But you and onions make me cry
