

Meja, Babysteps

I living in a dream
a fairytale
I wonder what is real and what is fake?
and what is true for me
is not for you
what reality
what does it mean to you?

Go take a look around in your everyday
to find that a miracle
is just a step away

Babysteps along the way
one little babystep every day Babysteps along the way
one little babystep is OK I not too little I not too much simply human with a female touch
I take babysteps along the way

I don wanna pretend that it all under control the more I try to learn the less I know I capture in my hand
an ancient soul
but I don understand the ultimate goal

I take a look around in my everyday
to find that a miracle
is just a step away

Chorus

I take
babysteps
