

Mekong Delta, Shadow Walker

[R. Hubert, R. Hubert]

He was thinking it out and started writing it down the crazy thoughts in his head
He was on a roll to find his self control
but it was taking it's toll instead
Meanwhile outside
as the normal crowd did their daily thing
they were caught in a swing when they looked at their leaders they were full of doubt He couldn't figure them out
It was a journey down into his deepest dreams against the normal streams wasn't totally clear
But he knew it was here
what he was trying to be Yeah
And outside his door was the camera light that devoured the night
what a terrible sight
it was spilling grace and wisdom over the crowd made them feel so proud Walking - a member of the crowd
Talking - chit-chat without a doubt
Feeling - cancelled from the normal life
Living - on the shadow side
Out of the dark - I will dive into the light
I will - gonna rise up from the crowd
I will - be a star in TV land
That's right - be a hero for a day
I will - gonna fill the headline news
Yes me - with the things that I will do
Solution - for their senseless talk
I will - be a star in TV land
~Shadow Walker~
Silent dreamings, silent dreamings and with a final thought of his new glory he sought he felt the time drawing near So when he started to dress he knew he wanted his best took a look what he had in here
When everything was in place he finally put on his face a last and lovely smile keep it on for a while Then he started to stroke
the pistol's cold black cheek
it was shiny and sleek
Walking - a member of the crowd
Feeling - cancelled from the normal life
Living - on the shadow side

I will - be a star in TV land
That's right - be a hero for a day
I will - gonna fill the headline news
Yes me - with the things that I will do
Solution - for their senseless talk
I will - be a star in TV land
So he shot at the light paralizing the night with the ordiance of might it was over so fast
he walked out of the shadows and then into the past oh yeah
Then it hit him so hard like a fallen star
and left a permanent scare this is what you are He'd become one of those that he hated the most ruling a mindless crowd
Walking - a member of the crowd
Feeling - cancelled from the normal life
Living - on the shadow side
I will - gonna rise up from the crowd
I will - be a star in TV land
That's right - be a hero for a day
I will - gonna fill the headline news
Yes me - with the things that I will do
Solution - for their senseless talk
I will - be a star in TV land
