

Mel B, In Too Deep

I'm rushing
From the moment I wake till the last drop-off light
And I'm rushing
Through people and traffic, it's my city ride
Then I see your face
And my head is lost
Just one look and my whole world stops
In too deep
I'll be yours to keep
Just let me in
I'll stay a while
Maybe you'll see me in time
Stranger of mine
I wonder
Would you turn to me if I asked you your name
And I wonder
Is your timing like mine and if your life's the same
I imagine sometimes
That I'm right here with you
When I see your face my whole world stops
In too deep
I'll be yours to keep
Just let me in
I'll stay a while
Maybe you'll see me in time
Stranger of mine
Stranger of mine
Am I invisible, too emotional
Should I walk away, hold my breath and stay
If this feeling's not real tell me why, am I
In too deep
I'll be yours to keep
Just let me in
I'll stay a while
Maybe you'll see me in time
Stranger of mine
Just let me in
I'll stay a while
Maybe you'll see me in time
Stranger of mine
In too deep (stranger of mine)
Yours to keep (stranger of mine)
In too deep (stranger of mine)
Yours to keep
In too deep
Yours to keep
