Laughs I was gonna get all soft and smoochy Oh yeah (I love you baby) (oh yeah) Oh yeah (I need you baby) (oh yeah) Oh yeah (I love you baby) (oh yeah) (Yipee!) Oh yeah, feels so good I'm loving you, like I should Remembering, how it feels Letting go to have you near Oh yeah, feels so good I never thought, that it could My feelings are deep inside This love I found won't ever hide Let's go from the very start When we met you and I were inseperable All at once we swapped our hearts Knowin that we had it right People got involved with us I should have pushed them all away Now I know what went wrong Why did is take me so long Lovin' you, lovin' you, is the easy part Don't know, don't know, what to do with it Me and you, me and you, keepin it tight Cos two of a kind Makes us so right Oh yeah, feels so good I'm loving you, like i should Remembering, how it feels Letting go to have you near Oh yeah, feels so good I never thought, that it could My feelings are deep inside This love I found won't ever hide Partnerships have ups and downs Understand you and I are not alone Feeling real normality Come on, put your trust in me Believe in me when I say Everyone can keep away Now I know what went wrong Why did it take me so long Lovin' you, lovin' you, is the easy part Don't know, don't know, what to do with it Me and you, me and you, keepin it tight Cos two of a kind Makes us so right Oh yeah, feels so good I'm loving you, like i should Remembering, how it feels Letting go to have you near

Oh yeah, feels so good
I never thought, that it could
My feelings are deep inside
This love I found won't ever hide
I know how I want you
I know how I need you
Two of a kind will always be
Ever after happily
Feeling free, you and me
No one can touch us now

That is how it's got to be Each passing day, we grow stronger still Like the after taste of a bitter pill Keep the hurt and pain far away from me Warm me in your glow of the ecstacy Ladies holler if you hear me (oh yeah) Fellas holler if you feel me (oh yeah) Everybody can you see me (oh yeah) Cos two of a kind makes us so right (Yipee!) Oh yeah, feels so good I'm loving you, like i should Remembering, how it feels Letting go to have you near Oh yeah, feels so good I never thought, that it could My feelings are deep inside This love I found won't ever hide Oh yeah, feels so good I'm loving you, like i should Remembering, how it feels Letting go to have you near Oh yeah, feels so good I never thought, that it could My feelings are deep inside This love I found won't ever hide (Yipee!)
